Free Studio Program for Children on April 17th

MYSTIC, CT – April 5, 2007 – The Mystic Arts Center will be holding a free studio program for children of all ages on Tuesday, April 17th from 10 am to 12 noon. Children, accompanied by an adult, are invited to drop-in to create their own underwater scene using paints and oil pastels. This is a great opportunity to get a preview of the Mystic Arts Center's Summer Art Camps for Children scheduled to begin in July.

Mystic Arts Center is a non-profit organization dedicated to supporting creativity, culture and community. Stunning galleries overlooking the Mystic River create a beautiful location for visitors to view pieces from our exclusive permanent collection and purchase unique works of art from changing exhibitions featuring talented local artists. State-of-the-art studios attract artists of all ages and ability levels to unleash their creativity in fun classes, workshops, and summer art camps featuring new and diverse themes in a variety of media. The Center also hosts special events and lectures throughout the year. Open daily from 11-5. A $2 donation is suggested for admission to the galleries.
