FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Free Artist Demo at the Mystic Arts Center

MYSTIC, CT – June 6, 2007 – The Mystic Arts Center will be holding a free demonstration by artist Jack Broderick on Tuesday, June 19 at 2:00 pm Jack will demonstrate the techniques of painting en plein air on the Mystic Arts Center’s terraces overlooking the picturesque Mystic River. Jack will be teaching a ‘Plein Air Painting’ workshop geared towards artist of all ability levels from June 27 to 29. Visitors will have the opportunity watch Jack’s demonstration and then can register for his upcoming workshop.

A full time artist and teacher, Jack Broderick spends some of his time painting in Argentina, Spain, Italy, Japan and Ireland and returns to Mystic to exhibit and teach. Jack studied at the Lyme Academy, UConn, University of Notre Dame and Marist College. His patient, easy style lends itself to the river front atmosphere of the KTJ studios of the Center. New England streams, fields, waterfronts, Irish farms, Spanish cities and Buenos Aires sidewalk parillas are among Jack’s favorite studies. Jack Broderick is a member of numerous organizations including the Mystic Arts Center and Copley Society of Boston.

The Mystic Arts Center is a non-profit organization dedicated to supporting creativity, culture and community through a variety of rotating exhibits, art classes, educational programs, and special events. The Center houses a state-of-the-art studio, five art galleries, and a permanent art collection – all located in historic downtown Mystic at 9 Water Street.
